Based on years of experience: AIREX® Coronella

The AIREX® Coronella sports mat reflects 60 years of experience in foam technology. Just as the Swiss company's first gymnastic mats revolutionized school sports in the early days, we are now setting new standards with the AIREX® Coronella sports mat. The pleasant thickness of AIREX® Coronella cushions your movements without being too soft. The material we developed in-house for the AIREX® Coronella is dimensionally stable and can also withstand greater physical challenges. At the same time, the sports mat can be rolled up and stored discreetly at any time.

- AIREX® Coronella: dimensionally stable & multifunctional for any application
- Free 5 year extended warranty on the AIREX® Coronella
- In-house foam technology makes the AIREX® Coronella a steady companion

AIREX® Coronella: the sports mat for in the studio and at home

Together with the Corona training mat, the AIREX® Coronella is standard equipment found in first-class gyms and sports clubs and used by top-notch personal trainers. But AIREX® Coronella is also continuously gaining enthusiastic users for use at home, too. We are confident that you will enjoy your new sports mat for a long time.

While it was not the first mat AIREX® brought to market, the Coronella together with the Corona have become the stars among AIREX® gymnastic mats. Millions have been sold since the market launch in 1960. Developed in cooperation with athletes and therapists, it continues to meet their requirements and is the number one choice for equipping top-notch fitness studios, personal trainers, sports clubs, Pilates studios, and even German soccer team club rooms. The Coronella is also becoming increasingly more popular for training at home. The Swiss quality speaks for itself and, with the right care, the Coronella can remain a reliable training partner for a lifetime.

You want an AIREX® mat that is not only the perfect companion for your workout, but also customizable? This is no problem with the products in our gymnastics shop. The AIREX® Coronella is available in six different attractive colors and two sizes (185 or 200 cm). In addition, the mat can be customized with an image or text of your choosing. This way, there will be no risk of confusion, even if everyone else in the studio also has a mat from the world's leading mat manufacturer.
